

Tuesdays · 12 to 1

Free, informal noontime concert series. Bring a bag lunch. Coffee and tea provided.

April 29 Classical and Romantic Masterpieces

Kevin Ayesh, piano

The program features works by Mozart, Brahms, Chopin, Liszt, and Rachmaninoff.

May 13 Romantic music for String Trio

Sofia Hirsch, violin; Laura Markowitz, violin /viola; John Dunlop, cello

Members of the Vermont Symphony Orchestra perform Romantic music by Schubert, Dohnanyi, and Borodin, plus gems by lesser-known composers.

May 27 From Bach to Bagdasarian

The Kotchka Chamber Players

Ruben Kosemyan, violin; Hilary Goldblatt, flute; Alison Cheroff, piano

Music by Bach, Beethoven, Debussy and Ibert, and the gypsy-inspired Violin Rhapsody by Bagdasarian.

June 10 SYRINX Feel the Spirit

SYRINX Glenn Sproul, conductor

The twelve unaccompanied voices of SYRINX bring to life the great African-American spirituals of renowned baritone singer and arranger Harry T. Burleigh, as well as songs and motets from traditions ranging from classical to classic Broadway.

Choral Services at the Cathedral

Evening Prayer in the style of the Community of Taizé, at 7:30 p.m.

April 14 Monday in Holy Week

June 8 Sunday Evening

To receive e-mail announcements about concerts, send your request to info@CathedralArts.org.